25X1 13. [] Accompanied [] CI Staff, 25X1 to a briefing of George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, 25X1 on the [] case. The briefing was in response to requests from Murphy and included a full discussion of the facts and personalities involved in this case. Murphy raised some pertinent questions and appeared completely satisfied with the briefing. It is obvious that Murphy has received information from various other agencies on this case and it is believed that this briefing will set him straight on the facts involved.

25X1 14. [] Frank Schroeder, Chief Investigator, Senate Special Subcommittee on Internal Security, called and requested 25X1 the name of the [] which I furnished to him.

25X1 15. [] Called George Autry, Senate Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights staff, to make an appointment to discuss Senator Ervin's bill protecting the constitutional rights of Government employees (S. 1035). Autry was most cordial but thought there would be little to gain from such a conference since we would have to talk to the Senator in the final analysis. He suggested it might be helpful if we could prepare a memorandum stating our position for the use of the Senator prior to a conference with him. I said I would explore the possibilities of doing this and be back in touch.

25X1 16. [] I talked to [] of ORR, 25X1 who was seeking guidance on furnishing an unclassified bibliography on Soviet military aid through the Joint Economic Committee for use of an unknown congressman. It was agreed that we would furnish nothing from the Agency but that he would refer Mr. Herman of the JEC to a New York Times article and suggested any further research be done by the Library of Congress.

25X1 17. [] Met with Sally Gaston, in the office of Representative William Widnall (R., N.J.), to review a constituent letter relating to possible [] I suggested 25X1 language for a reply which Miss Gaston said should prove fully satisfactory.

25X1 18. [] In response to their inquiry, delivered to the office of Congressman Wendell Wyatt (R., Ore.) material relating to Agency employment procedures. This fully satisfied the request and no reply to Congressman Wyatt's letter is necessary.
